

Everton Elementary

Points of Pride 2015-2016

- Winners of the Everton School Science Fair were; Ty McMullen, grade 5 and Evan Osborn, grade six.
- Ty McMullen received Honorable Mention for his project in the Regional Science Fair at Ball State University.
- Everton's Science Team placed third in the state competition.
- Everton's Math Team placed fourth in regional competition.
- Everton's Student Council raised over $800.00 for Riley Hospital.
- Everton students had a 96.9% attendance rating during the 2015-2016 school year.

Everton Elementary

Points of Pride 2015-2016

- Everton's kindergarten had a twenty-three percentage point increase in the number of students at the grade level norm for both Math and Reading on the Spring NWEA compared to the Fall NWEA.
- Everton's first grade had a ten percentage point increase in the number of students at the grade level norm for Reading on the Spring NWEA compared to the Fall NWEA.
- Everton's second grade had a fourteen percentage point increase in the number of students at the grade level norm for Reading on the Spring NWEA compared to the Fall NWEA.
- Everton 3-6 grade students scored above the district average at each level on Acuity Readiness C for Math.

